

Calaveras Youth Mentoring Program

MENTORS WANTED!

(May 2012)

If you know of someone who would make a good mentor for any of these young people, please call us at 209-736-6078.

14-year-old boy, Valley Springs, loves science, adventure, and reptiles. Enjoys discussing intellectually stimulating topics. Would like a mentor who is smarter than him. Likes to read and play tennis.

9-year-old boy, Mokelumne Hill, has a great imagination and loves to read. Wants to be an inventor someday. Would like a mentor who is active and knows how to build things.

12-year-old boy, San Andreas, Enjoys all things outdoors. Wants to be a marine when he grows up. Would like a mentor who would take him fishing for the first time.

8-year-old boy, San Andreas, is looking for a cool and groovy guy with whom he can go on hikes, play football, go fishing, and play board games.

15-year-old boy, Angels Camp, would love to spend time with a man interested in technology. enjoys bike riding, swimming, tree climbing, and would like to learn to ski.

16-year-old girl, Angels Camp, loves photography. Enjoys fashion, makeup, and styling hair. Has played volleyball for a long time, and would like to be matched with a fun, active mentor.

10-year-old boy, Douglas Flat, enjoys bike riding, baseball, football, and fishing and would like to learn how to snowboard.

7-year-old boy, Murphys, loves to build things. Would like a mentor who is interested in wood working. Also enjoys fishing and being outside. Likes playing games. Would like to go fishing with his mentor. Likes jumping in puddles.

10-year-old boy, Murphys, is gentle and easy-going. Enjoys reading and really likes school. Plays soccer and flag football.

We need safe adults who:

Are communicative and can listen
Have time
Enjoy kids

Are non-judgmental
Are flexible and dependable
Plan to be in the county for the next year

We offer:

Complete training and program support
A way to meet other fantastic people
Flexible time commitment

Personal growth
A fun new friendship
A chance to share your dreams

 Check us out on the web at www.calaverasmentoring.org ***